

The League of Women Voters for Johnson County
90th Anniversary Lunch
Wednesday, February 24th,
11:30 AM to 1:30 PM

“I always feel the movement is a sort of mosaic. Each of us puts in one little stone, and then you get a great mosaic in the end.”

Alice Paul

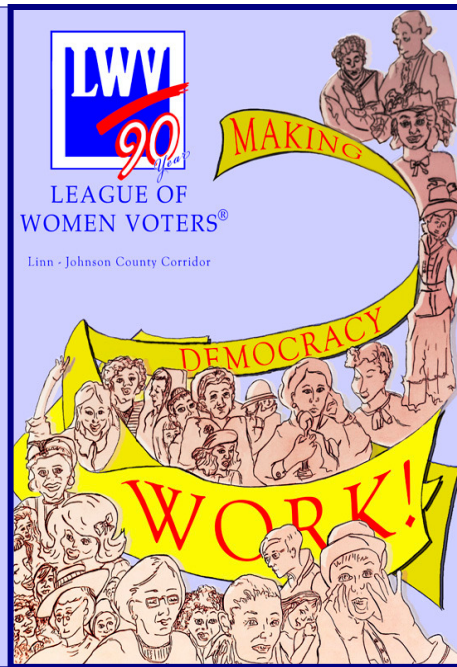

(who first wrote out the Equal Rights Amendment in 1923)

Pieces of the Mosaic

Honoring the women & men of Johnson County who each put in her/his one little stone and by doing so, created the mosaic that is the rich tapestry of women’s lives today.

Our friends, leaders, characters and the champions of our causes.

We’ll celebrate us a little too. And remember, if we don’t tell our own stories, who will?
